Summary of Legislation: This bill provides for the sealing of criminal history data concerning an act committed by a person before the person became 18 years of age. It provides that this provision does not apply to a person who: (1) commits a sex offense or murder; (2) is in a penal facility when the person is at least 22 years of age; or (3) is arrested for a felony after the person becomes 18 years of age.

Effective Date: July 1, 2001.

Explanation of State Expenditures: Under current Indiana law, the Indiana State Police Department (State Police) is required to maintain a state central repository of criminal history data. The State Police would incur no additional expenses regarding the repository's administration by fulfilling the requirements of this bill.

Explanation of State Revenues:

Explanation of Local Expenditures: Criminal and juvenile justice agencies would also be required to seal criminal history data of certain individuals. It is not likely that these agencies would incur additional administrative expenses due to this provision.

Explanation of Local Revenues:

State Agencies Affected: Indiana State Police.

Local Agencies Affected: Criminal and Juvenile Justice Agencies.
